Take Time Out to be Inspired!

Dear Friends,

We do believe this has been most beautiful spring we can remember, with the redbuds and dogwood trees in full bloom against the bright green grass. Nature's tapestry unfolding before us is truly an inspiring sight to behold. Here at the shop we get to see our own version of unfolding beauty in the projects our students create.

Our recent Mosaic Stepping Stone Class was a great example as each creation was so different, and beautiful! And everyone had such a good time. "I am inspired!" one student remarked with that far away look in her eyes that we glass artists know so well. There is nothing quite like turning a stepping stone out of the mold and getting that first peek, or holding a glass panel up to the light for the first time. It is inspiring, and it's what we work for around here.

To give you more opportunities to express your creativity and learn some new skills, we will be offering up a new slate of classes this summer. We've tried to have something for everyone, no matter what your skill level. The dates are posted over to the right so you can save the dates if you see something of interest. On the back, you will find details for the first two classes, and let us know if you would like to sign up.

This month we are putting all of our mosaic tools, books and supplies on sale for 20% off. Use the coupon on the back of this page to take advantage of the sale.

Very often, we hear people telling of busy lives, and overcrowded schedules and life

One of our happy students proudly displays her project can sometimes seem like it is flying by. We hope you will take a pause, now and then, to have some fun and do something you enjoy. Take time out to be inspired!

As always,
Laura
