Fusing Club Coming Soon to Hallock Stained Glass

Dear Friends,

Coming up this January, we'll be launching the Hallock Stained Glass Fusing Club. We'd like to invite you to join in the fun, along with other "glass addicts" for a series of fusing classes. Club Members will have the opportunity to learn many fusing skills from the basics to more advanced techniques. Projects will range from fused jewelry items and picture frames to wind chimes and vases. We have a sampling of what we'll be offering on display here at the shop, so stop by when you get a chance and check it out. All the soon to be revealed details will be available soon, so stay tuned for all the particulars.

We've started offering bead making classes on an individual basis. Classes are scheduled at a time that's convenient for both student and teacher. You can read all the details below. If bead making is something you are interested in learning how to do, then stop by the shop or give me a call.

Nothing sparks creativity and learning quite like class participation.

Plan to get a jump start on the holidays with our Angel Candle Holder Class on Saturday, Nov. 7th. This angel is so charming you're sure to want to make more for gifts.

The last Beginning and Workshop Classes of 2009 will be forming the first week of November since we won't have our regular classes during the month of December. We will offer them again at the beginning of the new year, so let us know if you'd like to sign up.

We'd like to thank all of our loyal customers who turned out for our annual Fall Madness Sale. By doing so, you help ensure that your local glass store will continue to be a place of fun and learning for many years to come. Especially in these tough economic times, now more than ever, we really appreciate your business!

As Always,
Laura

PS: We will be closed on Nov. 27th for Thanksgiving

Add a Classic to Your Home

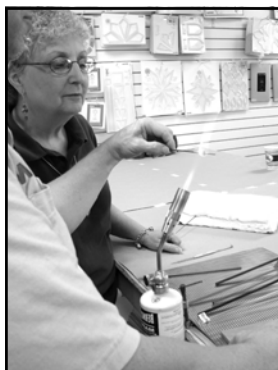

Have you ever thought you might like to have a piece of stained glass in your home? We can teach you how to make one, or if you are not inclined to learn, we can make one for you. Beautiful stained glass gives an elegant, timeless appeal to any surrounding, and may be more affordable than you think. Pricing is based on size and complexity of the design that you choose.

We specialize in creating kitchen cabinet doors, transoms, side lights or any other window in custom sizes to fit your needs.

Also, keep in mind that a custom stained glass panel makes a perfect gift to commemorate an anniversary, birthday, graduation or any other special event you may have coming up. You can create your own design or choose from hundreds of our patterns. We can even work with your architect or designer to create the perfect piece for your décor.

Bring in your measurements and ideas. Let us help you create a special work of art that you will treasure for years to come.

Now Offering Beginning Bead Making Classes

Laura offers guidance to a beginning bead making student

Starting in October, we'll be offering Beginning Bead Making classes in the form of one-on-one instruction. Intended for students with little to no bead making experience, emphasis will be on learning how to use the Hot Head bead making torch to make glass beads. Basic skills such as safety, winding the glass onto the mandrel, surface decoration, and several bead shapes will be practiced.

The class fee will cover four hours of individual instruction. Please wear long, cotton pants and closed-toe shoes. Students are required to purchase our Beginning Bead Making Kit for use in the class and need to bring along a can of mapp gas and safety glasses to the class.

Class Fee: $75.00
Hallock Stained Glass Beginning Bead Making Kit: $129.95 (required)
Date & Time: As determined by student & teacher

Angel Candleholder

Get a jump start on the holiday season and join in as we make these stunning Angel Candleholders. With a double skirt and a jewel for her head, she stands about eight inches tall, and is made with a spot just right to hold a votive candle.

Students bring to class: a purchased 35mm jewel; seven angel pieces cut, foiled and edge beaded per our supplied pattern, and soldering supplies and equipment.

This angel makes a distinctive gift and we are bringing her your way just in time for the holidays.

Prior experience is required.

Class Fee: $35.00
Date: Saturday, Nov. 7, 2009
Time: 11:00am - 1:00pm
